

A modern kitchen interior featuring dark, vertically-grained wood cabinetry. The upper cabinets are wall-mounted, and the lower cabinets are floor-mounted. A light-colored, textured concrete backsplash is installed behind the countertop. A black faucet is positioned over a sink. To the right, a built-in oven is visible, and below it are three drawers. The floor is made of light-colored wood planks in a herringbone pattern. A red graphic overlay is in the bottom left corner.
